Subject: NO Early release for genocidaires!!

Dear Judge Meron,

The early release of convicted genocidaires is an extraordinary and shameful affront to justice, not only for victims, survivors and their families, but for all people who believe in the international justice system.

Releasing Rwandan mass murderers demonstrates to the world that the MICT trivializes the crime of genocide as well as ignores the United Nations Genocide Convention.

As a Holocaust and Genocide historian who conducts trainings for police, judges, attorneys and Homeland Security agents, I beseech you to amend or remove the provision for early release from rule 151 of the MICT's Rules of Procedure and Evidence which provides unconditional release. The president of MICT has discretion as to whether or not to grant early release. You must act with honor and courage and remove this provision immediately. If MICT chooses to continue to release genocidaires, then you are collaborating in, and enabling further persecution of genocide survivors.

Judge Meron, please use your powers and authority to uphold justice for the victims, not the perpetrators.

Respectfully,

Beth Lilach, M.A.
